

NOMINATIONS

2022 ANNUAL CONGREGATIONAL MEETING

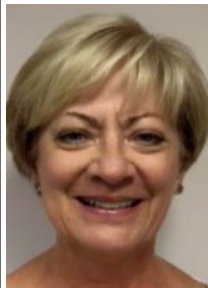

Nominees for Elder – Class of 2025:

GREG BORDEN and his wife, Julie, were active members of Vanderbilt from 2004-2012. After selling their small business and moving away from Southwest Florida, they returned in 2021 to their Vanderbilt family and a new home in Estero. The Borden's identical twin daughters, Anna and Brooke, are freshmen at FGCU and their son, Cole, is a sophomore computer science major at Wabash College (Crawfordsville, IN). Greg is a native Hoosier and graduate of Purdue University and has spent much of his 25+ year career in the payroll business. Greg's a big fan of tennis, following the men's ATP tour actively and playing competitive doubles 2-3 times a week. Previously, Greg served Vanderbilt as a member of the finance committee and as treasurer. He's recently joined the stewardship committee and is very much looking forward to this next walk with Christ serving the congregation as an elder.

DR. JOE DOGGETT was born and raised in Southern Missouri. He received a BS and MA prior to being drafted in the US Army, serving in Viet Nam in artillery. Dr. Doggett graduated from Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine, received postdoctoral training at Cleveland Clinic, Mayo Clinic, and University of Missouri. He has practiced Medical Oncology, Hematology, and Nuclear Medicine for treatment of cancer associated with the University of Missouri and State of Missouri. He and Sharon, his wife of 41 years, have 2 daughters, and 5 grandchildren. They have been in Marco Island and Naples since 2003.

ANNE PARKER FOOTE and her husband of 40 years, Kevin, moved to Naples in 2018. They have 2 children – a daughter who lives in Minneapolis, MN and a son who lives in Austin, TX. After college she started a career in telecommunications and owned a private information technology consulting firm. She was baptized and grew up in the First Presbyterian Church of Jesup, IA and was a member at North Como Presbyterian in St. Paul, MN, Rancho Bernardo Community Church – Presbyterian, San Diego, CA and Plymouth, Presbyterian Church (PPC) in Plymouth, MN. While at PPC, she was an Elder, Deacon, sang in the choir, and taught confirmation. She was a commissioner to the Presbyterian (USA) General Assembly in 1997, served on the Presbytery of the Twin Cities Area Council and chaired the Worship Committee for General Assembly when it was held in Minneapolis in 2010.

PATRICIA PETERS grew up in Kalamazoo, MI, where she also lived most of her adult life, until her husband's retirement. She attended the College of Wooster, OH, where she met her husband, Tim. They were married in 1963. When he finished law school, they moved to her home town where they raised 3 children. They were active in a small Presbyterian church in Richland, MI. She was an Elder and Clerk of Session, served on the Pastor Nominating Committee, and wrote a pageant for whole-church participation on the occasion of the Church's 150th birthday. She was an English teacher before kids, but later started teaching piano lessons and eventually taught Kindermusik. They are blessed with 3 grandsons. Until Covid, they traveled extensively and hope to do that again! The Peters joined Vanderbilt in 2014 where she has been an usher and is a Stephen Minister. They live in Bonita Springs and Chautauqua, NY.

RONALD SHAFFER is a life-time Presbyterian. He was baptized in a Presbyterian Church in Lyndhurst, Ohio. He spent most of my adult life in the Washington DC area and also living and working in the Far East for nine years. He is now retired and living full time in Naples. He has been a member of VPC since 2008 and has served on numerous committees since then (including as chairman of the committee that brought our first interim pastor to our church when our long-time pastor retired). He has served as a deacon and elder during his time as a member in VPC and looks forward to doing so again in the future.

SUE VAN FOSSEN and her husband, Bill, were born and lived in Columbus, Ohio all of their lives before moving to Naples. They have two daughters and two grandsons. Sue worked for GE in Customer Service for 23 years. Previously she worked for the Social Security Administration and the State of Ohio. After retiring, she worked as a day care teacher at Riverside Methodist Church. They have attended both Methodist and Presbyterian churches. Sue taught both Sunday School and Vacation Church school for many years. At Vanderbilt, she is active in VandeReaders, WMLA, CNC, ushering and Parish Life. She is in her second term as a Deacon, and also, is a liturgist.

Nominees for Deacon – Class of 2023:

GERI PAYNE was born in Ann Arbor, MI and raised in New Jersey. She graduated from Katharine Gibbs Secretarial School and retired as a secretary at Lafayette College, Easton, PA. She met her husband, Bill, while in high school, and they recently celebrated their 57th wedding anniversary. They have 2 grown children and 7 grandchildren, living from NJ to CA. Geri & Bill moved to Naples in 2005 and joined VPC that same year, transferring their membership from Alexandria Presbyterian Church, Milford, NJ. While a member at Alexandria for 32 years, Geri served multiple terms as a Deacon and served on various committees. At VPC she has served as a Deacon, is a Stephen Minister, an usher co-captain, on the Wedding Coordinating Committee, member of Friends in Faith, and on the Membership & Involvement Committee. Geri is also active with the Pelican Marsh Women's League and has volunteered with the American Red Cross and at North Naples Community Hospital. Geri enjoys travelling, playing Mah Jongg, walking, and time spent with family and friends.

Nominees for Deacon – Class of 2025:

KAREN CHAPPLER has lived in Naples for over 25 years having moved here from California. She was baptized and raised in the Presbyterian Church. Karen is retired from being a preschool teacher having been a part of establishing the preschool here at Vanderbilt. During her spare time, she plays tennis, swims, beads and knits. Church activities include Habitat, Mision Peniel, Wholistic Health, ushering and being in the VandeReaders. This is her second time serving as Deacon and she is looking forward to serving again.

SHARON DOGGETT is married with two daughters and five grandchildren. She worked in the insurance industry for 31 years in Missouri and was a licensed agent in 13 states. She has lived in Florida over 18 years since retiring. Sharon has been a Stephen minister/leader, Eucharistic minister, and worship leader. She hopes she can perform this calling to His glory.

JILL DUNN worked in clinical microbiology and serology and research in epidemiology after graduating from the University of Michigan. She met her future husband, Doug Dunn, as a freshman. They married after graduation. She retired to become a full-time mom when her first child was born, and the family was later complete with three children. While raising the family, she was an active member of several service clubs as well as PTA and teaching Sunday school. Jill and Doug have been blessed with three grandchildren. Jill and Doug attended VPC when Tom Harp was pastor and joined when Russ Ritchel was interim pastor in 2013.

JERRY GRANDEY came to Naples in 2014 and quickly discovered the special music of VPC services. That led Jerry to begin singing with the Chancel Choir. During a difficult medical episode, the prayers and support of the members of the Chancel Choir accented the caring nature of VPC, and called Jerry to become a Member, both to deepen his faith and also to learn the skills of supporting others in need. Originally from Pittsburgh and raised in Buffalo, he graduated from Syracuse University. Jerry served in the US Air Force ultimately serving in Vietnam. After the Air Force, he spent 30+ years working as a freelance Assistant Director on films and TV. He has been a member of Rotary for many years. At VPC, Jerry sings in the Chancel Choir, is in the VandeReaders, and volunteers for Habitat. He is looking forward to learning how to better serve the members of VPC as he prepares to become a Deacon.

CAROL LINDSAY grew up in western Massachusetts, where she attended the Congregational Church. She and her husband, Price, were married in Chicago in 1981. She held several corporate positions, retiring as VP Operations from a Danish electronics firm in 2000. They moved to Naples several years ago and began attending VPC, joining in 2021. Carol has been a member of Friends in Faith for a number of years and she has recently become an usher. Having volunteered at Avow Hospice, NCH and Collier Harvest, she also enjoys reading, golf, MahJongg, and water aerobics. Carol and Price have 2 daughters and 3 grandsons.

PRICE LINDSAY was born in Independence, Kansas and grew up in Kansas City and Chicago. He attended Washburn University of Topeka, Kansas and graduated with a Bachelor of Business Administration/Economics degree. Moving to Chicago, he started a 40-year career in real estate, including Corporate, project management and commercial companies. With his wife, Carol, he has two daughters and three grandsons. As volunteers at AVOW Hospice, Price and his therapy dog, Lacey, have met with hundreds of elderly and ill people throughout Naples, providing emotional support and comfort. He also volunteers for Collier Harvest, delivering food on a monthly basis. Hobbies include reading, golf and antique cars. He is a member of the Buildings and Grounds team and serves as an Usher at VPC.

BARBARA LIEBER MCELWAIN was born and raised in Wisconsin. After her college graduation, she got a job working as a legislative aide for the Congressman from the 8th District of Wisconsin. She met her future husband, Andrew, on Capitol Hill. Then they began raising 2 sons who are now adults with jobs in technology in Pittsburgh. In 2006, they moved from Pennsylvania to Naples, due to Andrew's new job. An interesting thing happened. The older son, Robert, was a Boy Scout and he discovered Troop 274 at VPC. As an Eagle Scout, he completed a labyrinth project. Because of the church's friendliness, she became a church member. She has participated in Bible studies, donated blood for the blood drives and served as a Session elder.

Congregational Nominating Committee:
At Large Representatives:

NANCY MYERS moved to Naples In 1996, after spending most of her life in Corbin, Kentucky. Vanderbilt was the first church she visited on her search for a new church family. After visiting the other Naples and Bonita Presbyterian Churches, it was easy to determine that none compared to Vanderbilt. Over the last 26 years, she has served three terms as a deacon, one term as an elder, and has served on several other committees. She looks forward to the opportunity to serve our church again as a member of the nominating committee.

MARI-BEA WARNKEN was born in Jacksonville, Florida. She attended high school in Virginia Beach, Virginia and graduated from Longwood College in Virginia with a degree in elementary education. After graduation in 1976 she came to visit family in Naples for a couple of weeks, but never went back. She obtained her Florida real estate license, and pursued that career for over 40 years. In Naples, Mari-Bea met her husband, Jerry, and together raised 4 children, all of whom grew up in Vanderbilt Presbyterian Church. They joined the Church in 1991 and their children were very active in all aspects of youth activities. At VPC Mari-Bea has served as an Elder, on the Christian Education Team, Buildings and Grounds Team, Endowment Board, Memorial Garden Team, Interim Pastor Nominating Committee, Church Trustee, and Usher Team.

Endowment Trust Board:

JULIE BORDEN and her husband, Greg, returned to Naples and rejoined Vanderbilt in October of 2021. Greg and Julie and their three children, (Cole, Anna And Brooke) were active members of VPC from 2004-2012. Julie's parents are VPC members Dan & Dianne Westerlund. Julie is a real estate agent and all three children are in college. Julie and Greg have been very active members since they rejoined VPC. She is pleased to be asked to serve on the Endowment Trust Board.

DOUG DUNN is currently a partner in the CFSD Group, a financial advisory group. Doug has spent much of his 40-year career working in global energy at the center of major and often ground-breaking transactions involving energy companies, utilities, and investors. Doug has extensive experience advising energy companies, private equity investors and hedge funds. In between being a partner and management committee member of two major Wall Street law firms, he was a Senior Vice President of American Express. He has served on both corporate and charitable boards. Doug met his wife Jill at the University of Michigan when he was a sophomore and she a freshman. They married after college, and have three children, each of whom have advanced degrees, and three dearly loved grandchildren. Jill and Doug attended VPC before Tom Harp's retirement and joined when Russ Ritchel came as the interim Pastor. Doug is an ordained Elder and served one term on the Session. Currently, he serves on the Building and Grounds Committee.

STEVE KUTLER has been an active member of VPC since 2004 when he and his wife, Priscilla, moved to Naples full-time, from Bedford, New York. Steve's church activities include past Elder - 2 terms, Budget, Finance & Investment Team, Transition Team (after Rev. Harp's retirement), Endowment Board, Worship, Music and Liturgical Arts Team, and Stewardship Ministry Team. He has sung with the Chancel Choir since coming to Naples. Most recently he served as Co-Chair of the 2021 Capital Campaign.
